PUBLIC HEALTH REPORTS.

UNITED STATES.

Miraflores Island, P. R., placed by the President under the control of the Public Health and Marine-Hospital Service.

WHITE HOUSE, Washington, D. C., July 22, 1902.

By virtue of the authority vested in me by the Act of Congress approved July 1, 1902, entitled, "An Act authorizing the President to reserve public lands and buildings in the island of Porto Rico for public uses and granting other public lands and buildings to the government of Porto Rico, and for other purposes." Miraflores Island, in the harbor of San Juan, P. R., is hereby reserved for use as a quarantine station or a site for a marine hospital or for both said purposes, under the control of the Public Health and Marine-Hospital Service of the United States.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.
